

There will be a bookstall provided by Newham Books throughout the day and this will stock titles written by the main speakers as well as much else.

Food is provided by the Big Red Catering company and the English Civil War Society.

The Court Guard is provided by the English Civil War Society.

The Lilburne 400 t-shirt is produced by Philosophy Football.

Supported by donors to the Annual Fund
Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Organised by Levellers' Association in partnership with Bishopsgate Institute. Financially supported by the Amiel and Melburn Trust and the Goldsmiths Annual Fund. Sponsored by the Levellers Day, the National Civil War Centre, Verso books, Unite the Union and Goldsmiths History Department.

A VERY ENGLISH REVOLUTION

In General Election year
Philosophy Football celebrates a good old English tradition, REVOLUTION!

Levellers and Diggers, Ranters and the New Model Army, the spirit of protest and hope, ancient and modern.

T-shirt available at the Lilburne 400 Conference or from www.philosophyfootball.com

philosophyfootball.com
sporting outfitters of intellectual distinction

Lilburne 400 Conference

Saturday 14th March 2015

Lilburne 400 Conference

11am - 12 noon Opening & Welcome Great Hall	Jeremy Corbyn MP, Megan Dobney (Levellers' Day), Michael Braddick (author God's Fire, England's Fury), Michael Constantine (National Civil War Centre).
12.00pm-1.15pm Workshops	Great Hall John Lilburne, political mobilisation and the English revolution. Michael Braddick Print and principals: John Lilburne, civil war radicalism and the Low Countries. Jason Peacey	Upper Hall John Lilburne and the citizenship of 'free-born Englishmen. Rachel Foxley Lilburne and the Law. Geoffrey Robertson QC.
1.15pm - 2.00pm Lunch	Room 3
2.00pm - 3.15pm Workshops	Great Hall Lilburne, the Levellers and the disappointments of the English Republic, 1649-1653. Elliott Vernon. The Resurrection of John Lilburne, Quaker. Ariel Hessayon.	Upper Hall Reborn John?: the Eighteenth-century Afterlife of John Lilburne. Ted Vallance Jay Carver (Chief Archaeologist, Crossrail project)
3.30pm - 4.30pm Great Hall	Filming the Revolution: the making of The Devils Whore. Martine Brant and Peter Flannery in conversation.
4.45pm - 6.00pm Great Hall The legacy of Lilburne	Tariq Ali (writer and broadcaster, Verso books), Norah Carlin (author, The Causes of the English Revolution), John Rees (The Levellers' Association)
7pm - 8.30pm Great Hall Writing the Revolution	Katherine Clements (author The Crimson Ribbon), Michael Arnold (author of the Stryker civil war novels), Robert Wilton (author Traitor's Field), Bishop Bray (Stephen Burden) and the Rev. Hammer (singer and songwriter) who will perform tracks from the Freeborn John song cycle).	